Poem

My Brother's Bug
By Jack Prelutsky

plump: round and full

Juice dripped from the plump orange

soiled: made dirty

The spilled grape juice soiled my dress.

beneath: under

My bed is beneath the window.

Juice dripped from the plump orange.

soiled: made dirty

Use the word plump to describe an orange.

Use the word soiled to tell a time when you spilled juice.

Use the word beneath to describe your bed.
